Pretty Wooltex and Other Charming Suits Come With First Days of Fall

Pretty Tailored Wooltex Suits

will delight the heart of the woman who demands quality through and through.

This season's showing of Suits and Coats will add to our established reputation for garments of high quality.

Some of the designs shown are clever adaptations of Worth and Paquin models. The head designer of Wooltex garments spent several weeks in Paris this season studying the best models of the most famous dress artists.

The Charming Suit shown is as well tailored and of as fine material as the product of the best custom tailor-yet the price is extremely moderate. And it bears a guarantee of two seasons' satisfactory service.

You can examine this Suit inch by inch, turn it inside out-and the more carefully you examine it the better you will like it.

All the season's best fabrics and colors are represented in our large stock of Suits at

The Heights still continues to have a large number of guests, and most of them will remain until the closing days. During the past week many new arrivals have come to augment the already large crowd. Bowling has become vory popular, and each morning finds a number of the women in the bowling alleys. On Tuesday evening an enjoyable play was given by the guests of the hotel. The ballroom was turned into a small-sized theatre, and a good-sized stage erected. The play was "His Old Sweethearts," and the character of a Bachelor about to be married was taken by A. W. Robertson. The young women representing his different sweethearts were Miss Ruth Engle, Miss Isabel Engle, of Buona Vista; Miss Louise Crump, of Richmond; Miss Van Vleck, of Baltimore; Miss Young, of Petersburg; Miss Fergue, of Richmond; Miss Willis, of Dallas, Tex., and Miss Templeton, of Baltimore, Md. At its conclusion a hop was given, which lasted until 12 o'clock.

Mrs. W. B. Prichard entertained on Tuesday afternoon with a birthday party, in honor of Miss Sarah Stevens, of Washington, who is her house guest. Twelve young women of the city enjoyed playing whist for several hours, and at the conclusion of the game it was found that the highest score had been made by Miss Mary Richerson, and she was awarded the prize, which was a handsome Dutch collar.
